FLDOE/BEES* Discretionary Projects Resources

Serving public and non-profit private schools.

If you are interested in professional learning or resources working with students with disabilities, contact FDLRS.

The Florida Diagnostic & Learning Resources System (FDLRS) provides diagnostic, instructional, and technology support services to district exceptional education programs and families of students with disabilities. Service centers include 19 centers that directly serve school districts in the areas of Child Find, Parent Services, Human Resource Development (HRD), and Technology. Contact your local FDLRS Associate Center for more information on services in your area. Visit the website at <http://www.fdlrs.org/>.

If you are interested in professional learning or resources for Behavior Management, contact SEDNET.

SEDNET is a network of 19 regional projects that are comprised of the major child serving agencies, community-based service providers, students, and their families. SEDNET focuses on developing interagency collaboration and sustaining partnerships among professionals and families in the education, mental health, substance abuse, child welfare, and juvenile justice systems serving children and youth with and at-risk of Emotional and Behavioral Disorders. Visit the website at <http://www.sednetfl.info/>.

If you are interested in professional learning or resources for Transition Services, contact Project 10.

Project 10: Transition Education Network is Florida's statewide discretionary project supporting the secondary transition of youth with disabilities. It is funded by the Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services (BEES), within the Florida Department of Education. Project 10's primary charge is to assist school districts in providing appropriate planning and timely transition services and programs to assist youth with disabilities in their transition to adulthood. Visit the website at <http://project10.info/>.
